Comment received from E Jones, TVBC Senior Planning Officer on 22/1/24 – ‘.. the applicant requested the opportunity to consider and respond to the intended reasons for the refusal of the application, prior to its determination. They have subsequently submitted an appeal to the Planning Inspectorate against the non-determination of the application. It is therefore now the Planning Inspectorate that will make a determination on the application, however the Local Planning Authority will still be required to submit an Appeal Statement. Once we receive a start date for the appeal, we will notify those that have already made representations’.
